Please be aware

A malicious website called corona-virus-map[dot]com pretending to be the live map for Coronavirus COVID-19 Global Cases by Johns Hopkins University is circulating on the internet waiting for internet users to visit the website. Visiting the website infects the user with the AZORult Trojan, an information stealing program which can infiltrate a variety of sensitive data. It is likely being spread via infected email attachments, malicious online advertisements, and social engineering. Furthermore, anyone searching the internet for a Coronavirus map could navigate to this malicious website.

- NEVER open attachments or links in unsolicited emails

- NEVER give out personal information

- DELETE spam emails from your mailbox

Taking care when searching the internet

- When looking for sites offering things like driving licenses, road tax applications, European Health cards, ALWAYS choose the official government website that ends in .gov.uk
